LOCAL

The woods are full of wild grapes.

Crawfordville ought to have an Express office.

New seines and fishing tackle generally are in big demand now.

The colored population are in the midst of a big revival meeting.

The road to Arran ought to be made a public road. Lets get up a petition.

Lumber and shingles have arrived for Col. Nat Walker's new kitchen and dining room.

Our Sheriff has one of his jail birds clearing the weeds off of the Court house Square.

This has been a bad season for saving fodder. It rains just enough each day to damage fodder.

The Clyde steamship line has put on a special round trip rate of $32 from Jacksonville to New York.

Mr. J. W. Smith ran into some of that same bunch of wild turkeys again last week and counted about forty.

Cotton is opening fast and Capt.
Walker is having his scales and machinery fixed up for weighing and ginning it.

Wiley Cooper, one of our colored citizens while fooling with an old pistol Wednesday shot a bullet through his left hand.

Capt. Way, the turpentine man, passed through town Tuesday with his family and camping outfit, going to Panacea Springs.

The atmosphere is alive with gnats, and their constant punching in the eyes has caused an epidemic of sore eyes in this section.

"Hard times," is seldom heard in Wakulla county. The only thing the average Wakullian finds to complain of is the new fish law.

Sweet potatoes are plentiful with Mr. Wakulla White. He has been eating them from his patch for a month, and shipped a lot to Carrabelle last week.

Dr. Crawford returned last week to Tallahassee, leaving Mrs. Crawford here with her daughter Mrs. Adams, and other relatives. She is in town this week with her brother Capt. Walker.

Plenty of corn for home use will be made in Wakulla county this year, if those who have been over the county have not overestimated the crop. Some of our farmers will not make enough to do them, but others will have some to spare.

One of our old citizens says that wild turkeys in his section are growing as vicious as eagles, they chased our popular county clerk and his son out of the swamp a few days ago, where he was innocently locating land lines and hunting bee trees.

At the preliminary hearing last Saturday, "Butch" Harrell was bound over to circuit court. Failing to give the $200 bond, Butch is now in jail, and he awakens the surrounding echoes with his series of prayers, groans, Comanche war whoops and brayings.

The money that it would cost to get to the Klondyke gold mines in Alaska, would buy a plantation of rich hammock land in Wakulla county, that would produce a steady and everlasting stream of wealth, and be much easier worked than a gold mine.

Tobacco is the most useless of all weeds. When nicely cured and smoked it stinks worse than a mad pole cat, and its juice is as poison as the venom of a rattlesnake. It is fit for nothing but to kill insects and make men as filthy as hogs and as disgusting as buzzards. Nothing but a man, a worm, and a bear eyed billy goat will touch the abominable weed, but there is money in its culture, and there is no place on earth where it will grow to greater perfection than on the rich hammock lands of Wakulla.

Koreshanity in Florida.

The Koreshan Unity, located at Estero, in Lee county, has just been photographed, sketched, and written up by a correspondent for the Pittsburg Times.

The entire Unity came from Chicago, Pittsburg and other Western cities.

Dr. Cyrus R. Teed, of Chicago, rules every thing absolutely when he is there.
He is called the Koresh, whatever that may mean.
They sometimes call him the "Savior."

To join the Unity one has to give up of his or her worldly possessions to the Koresh, and depend on him for what they eat and wear, and work the balance of life for the Unity.

If a member gets disgusted and leaves the Unity, he loses all that he puts into it.
Once the property is turned over to the Koresh it is forever gone.

Mrs. Mary Ordway, of Pittsburg, Pa., is styled "Queen Victoria, Pre-eminent of the Unity." She wears a crown and a beautiful sword, and rules the Unity when the Koresh is absent.

A retinue of pretty girls styled "angels" do nothing but wait on the Koresh in conjunction with the Queen.

Marriage is not recognized in the Unity. They are all one happy family, and they claim that Estero is to be the New Jerusalem, and to prepare for its future upbuilding they have laid out their streets 30 miles long.

The saw mill, the stores, the garden farms and everything about the New Jerusalem belongs to the Unity, the Koresh and the Queen handle all the cash, the balance of the Unity do the work.

Dr. Teed the Koresh, professes and teaches celibacy, but from the description given of him and his manner of living, we would imagine he is as much of a celibate as the Sultan of Turkey.

Three years have elapsed since Teed and his Unity landed in Florida, but not a child has been born in the Unity that anybody knows of, since their landing, so it seems that new converts is their only hope to keep up the Unity.

For the first two years this "New Jerusalem" in wilds of Southern Lee county flourished like a green bay tree, but it seems on the wane now. Many of the members have become disgusted and deserted them, and many others would go if they had the means of getting away.

William G. Lee, stuttering Wilk, a the boys used to call him, who left his old home in Tallahassee about a dozen years ago to seek wealth in California seems to have found it. The Tallahas-sean says Will is now one of the directors of the Southern Railway

The last Ballot.

For the most popular girl in Wakulla, in the vote at Towles' Drug Store last night stood as follows:

Miss May Council,	681.
" Ola McLeod,	664.
" Lula Walker,	327.
" Mittie Walker,	282.
" Lizzie Knehr,	64.
" Bessie Walker,	60.
" Robenia Ezell,	46.
" Janie Barco,	22.
" Edna Winn,	19.
" Florida Walker,	10.

The vote was so close between the two highest candidates that the result was in doubt until the full count was made.

Miss May Council, the charming daughter of Mr. Thomas Council, received a plurality of 17 votes, and was declared the winner of the prize.

The prize offered by Mr. Towles, for the most popular young lady, is a handsomely bound, illustrated copy of Milton's Paradise Lost.

The vote for the most popular young man was as follows:

Mr. Emulus Forbes,	61.
" R. Don McLeod Jr.	45.
" W. W. Walker Jr.	32.
" Jim Calloway,	12.
" Christopher Columbus Harrell,	3.
" Hilton Gwaltney,	2.
" Early Durrance,	2.
" John Harrell,	1.
" Geo. Smith,	1.
" Ralph Causeaux,	1.
" Bascomb Powell,	1.
" C. K. Allen,	1.
" T. H. Moore,	1.

The vote represents the sale of 2318 glasses of soda water.

Pear blight does not seem to attack the trees of Col. Nat Walker near the court house square. He has about a dozen trees that are entirely free from blight and are loaded with pears.

Curfew is soon to ring in Pensacola, and boys under age and females without escorts will have to clear the streets at that hour. Every town in the land ought to keep small boys and lewd women off the streets after 7 o'clock at night. Many a criminal can trace his downfall to vile and immoral associations after nightfall. Let curfew ring from every city hall tower. And there will be no weeping mothers, sighing, "Where is my boy tonight." He'll be at home.

Remember that the BREEZE blows for all, and for every section of Wakulla county alike. It is our desire and intention to waft it into the home of every citizen of the county if possible.
Sample copies have been sent to the head of every family in the county whose address we could learn. If any have failed to get a copy, they can get a sample free of charge by sending u their address.

25 Sodawater tickets for one dollar at Towles' Drug Store. Each ticket entitles the holder to one vote for the most popular girl in the county.

Votes to be counted on Thursday Aug. 12th, and results printed in the BREEZE.
Get your tickets and vote for your choice.
